

CompX Grayslake is a leading manufacturer of highly engineered mechanical and electromechanical locking devices, systems for world class original equipment manufacturers and manufacturer of precision instruments, throttles, marine products, and accessories.

We currently have an opportunity for a Mold Maker on our 2nd shift. The candidates should be a self-motivated, multi-tasking individual who has good communication and interpersonal skills.

Qualifications:

- A minimum of 3 years' experience.
- Experience in running Lathes, Surface Grinders, Milling machines.
- Experience with sinker EDM Machines and electrode construction.
- Experience in building small to medium size precision Die Cast Dies and Plastic Injection Molds from tooling drawings and piece part prints.
- Ability to read engineering piece part prints, have mathematical skills and measuring skills.
- Ability to troubleshoot mold problems and make the corrections needed a plus
- Ability to make replacement inserts for molds.
- Ability to build fixtures for manufacturing assembly machines a plus
- Knowledge of trim dies a plus.
- Must be able to read, write and speak English fluently
- High School Diploma or equivalent

CompX Grayslake offers a competitive compensation and benefits package. Highlights of CompX Grayslake's benefit package include: Employee's health insurance premiums are Company paid, 401k with a company match and a profit sharing plan.

For immediate consideration, please email your resume to HR715@compx.com along with the completed Self Identifier Form. No phone calls please. EOE